THE CENSUS.

All Reports in but One—Result
Not Satisfactory.

Mayor Lang Will Have a Called
Meeting of the Council
Monday Evening.

Mayor Lang this morning gave the following figures to the Sun, as the result of the census taken by the enumerators appointed a short time ago by the council. All are correct with the exception of the figures in the Third ward, compiled by Prof. H. B. Lyon, who is now out of the city. They are about correct, however, and even if they should not be, it is claimed that there would be no material difference in the result.

First ward, 4414; Second, 2722; Third, 1800; Fourth, 2380; Fifth, 2862; Sixth, 4908.

Mayor Lang claims that he does not think that there will be any effort to prevent the council from paying the enumerators. He appears to be vastly pleased with the result of the census. As will be seen, the result as shown by the figures is 18,086, nearly a thousand under the requisite number.

To most people this census will be very unsatisfactory. In the first place, Zorn claims to have found over $1,000 two years ago, and since then in addition to the steady growth of Paducah, the cordage factory and other enterprises have brought hundreds of newcomers into Paducah, and just now many people are out of the city for weeks. Considering these facts, at the various resorts and have been the enumerators have done their work in a remarkably short time, and few people will think that it is a correct census.

Mayor Lang stated that he would call the council to meet Monday night in special session to hear the report of the enumerators, and also to consider a few other matters. One of these is the appointment of Officer Frank Sweeney to the position of overseer of the chain gang, and the appointment of extra officer Tobe Eitter to a place on the regular force, which he overlooked at the meeting Monday night.

SHIPPED TO LOUISVILLE.

Oliver Hall Stranded in Arkansas and Had no Way to Get Home.

Oliver Hall, an aged man who appeared to be at least seventy years old, this morning applied to Mayor Lang for assistance to reach his home in Louisville.

He told a pitiable tale of suffering in the wilds of Arkansas, where he went to make ties. Finally he could work no longer, and for sometime past has been working his way home. He was given a ticket to Princeton by the mayor.

TO SUMMON WITNESSES.

Deputy Marshal La Rue Has Gone to Marshall County.

Deputy United States Marshal La Rue went to Marshall county this morning to summon witnesses in the post-office robbery case against Horace Powell, in jail here. The case against Powell is set for Monday before U. S. Commissioner Puryear, who is expected home tomorrow from Atlantic City.

NOTICE.

The public schools of the city begin Monday, Sept. 11, 1899. For the purpose of examining and giving entrance cards to those needing them I will be in my office, in the Longfellow building, corner Fifth and Court streets, every day next week. Pupils will do well to avail themselves of this opportunity and avoid the usual rush the opening morning.
GEO. O. M'BROOM.

GUERIN HOLDS OUT.

PARIS, August 25.—Deeply suspicious of firemen's hose in Rue Chabron the anti-Semites, Guerin and his wife, spent another night on the roof of the house last night. They feared firemen would flood the house through a chimney. The police today were surprised to find chicken bones in Guerin's ash barrel. They cannot comprehend how Guerin could get chicken and believe the watch on the house is growing lax.

LYNCHING SURE

This is What is Predicted at Fulton Tonight Without a Doubt.

MATTHEW McFALL CAPTURED

He Was to Have Been Taken o Fulton Last Night, But Was Not.

MOB AT DEPOT THIS MORNING

Matthew McFall, the negro who has been so eagerly sought by residents of Fulton for several days past for an attempted assault on the young daughter of Mr. L. E. Clapp, by whom he was employed, is reported to have been captured in Princeton yesterday. When the news reached Fulton there was great excitement, and it was forthwith announced that he would be lynched.

McFall had not been identified, and it was attempted to have him brought here and identified and then taken straight through to Fulton on the same train, the fast mail which passed here at 3:55 this morning. This was not done, however, and it was then announced that he would be brought through this afternoon and taken to Fulton.

There was great excitement in Fulton last night, and when the train stopped there this morning at 5 o'clock there were about 500 people at the depot, expecting the negro to be aboard. The disappointment was great, as McFall is accused of a most dastardly crime, his intended victim being a girl at whose house he had been employed and with whom she had been trusted. He will most certainly be hanged if taken back. It has been only a few days since they hanged one negro there.

This afternoon, contrary to expectations, the negro was not brought through on the train from Princeton, en route to Fulton. Marshal Collins this afternoon received a telegram from Marshal Jesse Walker, of Fulton, asking if Ben Captor was here with McFall, the rapist. Marshal Collins replied that if he was he did not know it. It seems from the telegram that the Fulton authorities do not know where the negro is.

NOW IN NEW JERSEY.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Guests of the Hobarts.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., August 25.—President McKinley and wife and Vice President Hobart and Mrs. Hobart arrived at Hollywood this morning. An immense throng greeted the presidential party at the depot. The president and wife were driven immediately to the Hobart cottage. The buildings along the road were beautifully decorated. Troop C, of Brooklyn, acted as escort. The president and party review the military tournament and athletic games this afternoon.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.

John Franklin Flora, of Fulton, Trigg county, this morning filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in the United States court here. His liabilities are about $1,000.

ANOTHER ARRIVAL.

MANILA, P. I., Aug. 25.—The transport Ohio arrived this morning from San Francisco with two companies of the Nineteenth infantry and some recruits.

ASSASSINS THREATEN LABOR

PARIS, Aug. 25.—The Figaro says today that M. Labori had been made very nervous over the receipt of anonymous letters threatening the assassination of her husband, herself and their children.

NOTICE TO SALOON KEEPERS

It appears to have been the decision of the revenue authorities that the bonds given by saloon keepers to the city of Paducah, shall bear each a fifty-cent revenue stamp. This holds against all licenses issued since July 1, 1899. You are hereby notified to call on the city clerk at once and affix such stamp to any bond you have given the city since said time.
25a3t JAS. M. LANG, Mayor.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

All persons are hereby notified that it is in violation of the law of the city to bathe in the grave pit outside of the city. Much complaint has been coming in from this source, and officers have been detailed to arrest any or all who may be found violating this law.
25a3t JAS. M. LANG, Mayor.

NEW SALOON.

Mr. William Stevens, who had been in the saloon business at Grand Chain, Ill., for twenty years past, will tomorrow morning open up a fine saloon at 105 South Second street, where the newest and best of everything will be served. Mr. B. Cox, the popular mixologist, will be in charge of the bar.

WITHOUT MEANS.

This is the Way Mrs. Annie Mayes Struck Paducah.

Was Deserted in Dover, Tenn., By Her Husband—Applied to Mayor Lang.

Mrs. Annie Mayes, an intelligent and rather pretty young woman applied to the mayor last evening for assistance. She was here with out means, and begged a place to spend the night. She was sent to a neighboring boarding house and well taken care of.

This morning she stated to a reporter that she was deserted in Dover, Tenn., by her husband, who cruelly mistreated her, and that she hoped she would never see him again. She took passage on a steamer boat, and got off at Grand Rivers, being sent here on yesterday afternoon's train by kindly disposed people. She has no relatives here, and none anywhere else except an afflicted brother, who is unable to assist her. She desires to remain in Paducah and get work, and with this in view called on Mayor Lang again this morning.

The young woman was sent to the Home for the Friendless by the mayor, and will likely be given a place there until she can find a better one.

THE FAIR.

Mayor Lang Expresses His Views Most Forcefully.

Mayor Lang was this morning asked in regard to his views on the street fair. He stated emphatically that he was opposed to anything that would result in a suspension of the law in order to make it successful. "I am in favor of anything that will help bring the people here and benefit the city," he declared, "but I am opposed to anything like 'chuck-luck,' three card monte, tin horses, and such things, which I understand will be very essential to the success of the street fair. The law must not be violated."

He did not say that he would in any way interfere with a street fair, but merely replied to the question above named, in the manner mentioned. The project is as yet in embryo, and it is not known what will be the outcome of the enterprise.

AFTER HER HUSBY.

Mrs. Frances Glass Wants to Know "How Bout It."

Marshal Collins is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Frances Glass, of 609 Second street, Evansville, asking about her husband, Henry Glass, who is in jail here charged with housebreaking. She states she heard he was in the penitentiary, and wants to find out whether he went up from Kentucky, or Metropolis, Ill. It is said he has been in the penitentiary in Indiana. Mrs. Glass says she wants to get a divorce.

THREE RINGS STOLEN.

W. Chesterfield's House Entered Last Night.

A thief entered the residence of Mr. W. Chesterfield, the canning factory man, who resides near Tenth and Jones, and stole three fine rings. The thief was committed last night, and the thief left no clue. It is supposed that the same man who visited Mr. Chesterfield visited Mr. Vantres.

NO SUNDAY SPEAKING.

Mayor Lang has refused to grant the use of Yeller park to the socialists for a Sunday meeting. One of the leaders applied to the mayor today for the use of the park, but the mayor flatly declined to let it for any other than religious purposes on Sunday. He informed the gentleman that they could have it free of charge with electric lights thrown in on any other day—but not on Sunday except for preaching.

AT THE PARK.

The new play, "Hickory Farm," will be presented tonight. This is a very pleasing comedy drama of New England life. It contains a great deal of comedy and is altogether just the sort of a piece that the majority of theatre goers like to witness. The regular Friday night drama will be given in the new pavilion.

SUIT ON ACCOUNT.

Dr. J. W. Fendley this morning filed suit in the circuit court against Bettie Harmon and others for $99 claimed to be due on account, for professional services rendered.

JUDGE ROBERTS DEAD.

BARDWELL, Ky., Aug. 25.—Judge James Roberts, one of the oldest hotel men in this end of the state died here yesterday. He was a native of Henry county and served in the revenue service under Cleveland's last administration.

RAILROAD NOISE

Big Excursion to Louisville Tonight Over the Illinois Central.

EXODUS FROM NEW ORLEANS

Memphis Passenger Train Delayed Over Four Hours This Morning.

PRESIDENT FISH IN PADUCAH

The Illinois Central's $2 excursion to Louisville, from Dyersburg, Tenn., will pass through Paducah at 6:15 o'clock tonight, and the prospects are for a large crowd out of here. At Princeton several extra coaches will be picked up from the Evansville division, and it is expected that by the time the train reaches Louisville there will be half or two-thirds full.

Tomorrow the Illinois Central will run an excursion to New Orleans, and for several days past all the available sleepers and other coaches have been annulled down to accommodate the crowd. The rail will probably have to run in several sections, as it is thought that at least 3,500 people will go. The train will pass through Fulton.

Last night one of the sleepers being taken to New Orleans for the excursion tomorrow, jumped the track at Filippi, Tenn., and derailed the cannonball, due at 1:22 this morning from Memphis, over four hours. The sleeper was being taken to the Crescent City by a freight train.

President Steyer, and party and Superintendent of Transportation J. W. Higgins, of the Illinois Central, Chicago, who passed through the city yesterday en route to Louisville, passed through again this afternoon en route back. They have been out on a tour of inspection. Trainmaster Flynn went up to Filippi and met them at Greenville, accompanying them to Paducah. Supt. Harahan also came down.

Chief Dispatcher Allen Jorenson and family will return this afternoon from a ten days' visit to relatives in Boston, Mass.

Mr. James W. Stakner, an American Express messenger well known in the city, and who formerly resided here and had rooms at Mr. W. H. Patterson's on Jefferson street, was married a few days ago to Mrs. Maggie O'Flannigan, of Nashville, at the latter place. Mr. Stakner now runs between Fulton and Louisville, and passes through Paducah every other day.

Many of the Chicago excursionists are coming home in squads, and report an enjoyable time. The trip made a few of them ill, and they did not remain but a day, but most of them staid the limit.

Superintendent of Transportation J. W. Higgins arrived this afternoon from Louisville, but contrary to expectations, President Fish did not get in. Mr. Higgins was accompanied by Superintendent Harahan and trainmaster, and will inspect the terminal here.

ROCKY FORD CANTELOUPES

From the famous section in Colorado, known as "Rocky Ford," on sale tomorrow by E. K. Bond, stall 19, market house.

OPENING PLAY.

Will Not Be Long Until Morton's Opera-House Reopens.

Manager Terrell has finished booking attraction for Morton's opera house, and has secured some of the best on the road. Theater goers would doubtless agree, could they see the bookings, that no better attractions could be procured by a town this size. But Manager Terrell is averse to showing his bookings.

The season at Morton's this year opens with Lincoln J. Carter's "Remember the Maine," which has proven such a success elsewhere, and which was seen here last season. It is a scenic melodrama of great strength and will doubtless attract a large crowd. "Remember the Maine" will be played at Morton's opera house on Thursday, September 7, two weeks from last night, and will be followed the next night by Richards & Pringles' minstrel. The season will then be well occupied for the remainder of the fall and winter.

DOUBLE HANGING.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Aug. 25.—Silas Brown and Matthew Craig were hanged here this morning for murder. A daughter of Craig's victim witnessed the execution and sniled as the drop fell.

EXPERTS TESTIFY

In the Ireyfus Case Today Pro and Con.

Banket Says Ireyfus Did Not Write Bordereau, and Bertillon Says He Did.

RENNES, France, Aug. 25.—Rowland Strong, the Paris correspondent of the London Observer, and the only English witness to testify before the court, was the first witness heard in the Dreyfus court-martial today. He told how he tried to pay Esterhazy's confession for publication and said Esterhazy admitted that he wrote the bordereau. When Esterhazy quitted prison he told Strong several times that he would tell all and said it would ruin Du Clan and all who abandoned him. Strong said Esterhazy impressed him as being a thorough crook and swindler. The testimony of an officer named Wall, a friend of Esterhazy, before the court of cassation, was next read. Then Leque, a clerk in the war office, testified alleging that Dreyfus once looked over his shoulder while he was copying a secret document. Labori declined to cross-examine this witness.

M. Gobert, the handwriting expert of the Bank of France, was then called. Gobert told how he was originally called by the war office to examine the bordereau. After comparing it with the specimen of Dreyfus' handwriting he declared from first to last it was not the work of the accused. Gouze was called to confront the witness. Gouze said Gobert was wrong in the details of his testimony whereupon the expert earnestly demonstrated the correctness of all he had said.

Gouze retired discomfited, but insisted that Dreyfus had known the witness in the bank.

Dreyfus denied emphatically that he had ever known Gobert.

The rest of the day's session was given over to the testimony of M. Bertillon, head of the Anthropometric department of Paris police and who maintains he has proved Dreyfus the author of the bordereau. By his system the witness produced the bordereau in twelve minutes and claimed Dreyfus could have done the same. Bertillon presented his copy of the bordereau to the judges, who examined it closely. Finally Col. Jouaust leaned back and shrugged his shoulders as though dissatisfied. Dreyfus regarded Bertillon with astonishment. Labori and Demange when shown Bertillon's diagrams looked them over with scant interest.

In one of Bertillon's statements, which was made in a high voice of conviction he said, "Bordereau obeys geometrical rhythm and I have discovered equation of it on prisoner's blotting paper."

TOUGH PROBLEM.

Mr. W. P. Campbell, of the Cincinnati Post, who had been here interviewing politicians of various affiliations, left the city this morning for Hopkinsville, to continue his work.

"It is really useless work," he said this morning, "as there is no way to tell anything about the political situation. I find that the Taylor men say that Taylor is going to be elected, the Goebel men say that Goebel will be elected, and the Brown men say that Brown will be elected, and all give you the 'most reliable' figures to bolster up their cause."

"Of course no one knows anything about it, as it is impossible to tell just how many bolters there are or how many anything else there are. We do the best we can, however, interviewing men of every political faith, and then make our own decision which after all are of no use, nothing but opinions, based on other opinions, and all are fallible."

Mr. Campbell is a pleasant gentleman to meet, and intelligent and interesting to chat. He made many friends here, and interviewed all the prominent politicians.

WHAT'S NEXT AT THE ARCADE?

EXAGGERATED, NO DOUBT.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—A Reuter dispatch from Labuan Island, near north British Borneo, says according to reliable advices from Manila, an indescribable state of anarchy prevails in the Philippines. Advices say the Americans in Luzon hold territory only within fifteen miles of Manila and occupy a radius of only nine miles about Iloilo and only a small radius about Cebu, all the rest of the country being in the hands of Filipinos. The dispatch also says the insurgents murdered the crew of the steamer Saturnus, which was burned by Filipinos near San Fernando August 2.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 25, 1899.

The army of France may convict

Dreyfus again, but the army too will stand convicted before the world through the efforts of Labor, who has already shown the whole gang up in an unenviable light. Gen. Mercler and that underling traducer, Esterhazy,

would make a good pair for twelve months on Devil's Island.

What will it profit the Louisville

Courier-Journal if Goebel is elected?

He is reputed to be very wealthy. If not so much so as the L. & N. he is sufficiently so to pay roundly for helping him into a high office. The

C. J. is saying money is figuring in the election and it must know. The question is, how much?

The Republican campaign in this state is in the best condition possible, thanks to its wise leaders. In union

there is strength, and in November

there will be victory, through this strength.

Tomorrow the Brown Democrats open their canvass at Bowling Green, where

Brown will doubt address thousands of the good people of that county. The interest in the speaking is certain to draw a large crowd to the capital of Warren.

The man who will not read both sides of a question is incompetent to discuss

that question and is calculated to be too biased to discuss any other matter of interest.

The Goebelites think they have placed the opposition on the defensive.

Now this is a joke. The Goebelites were the first to start the canvass and finally got in such a hurry that they couldn't wait the time they originally set, but had to call a lot of speakers

into the field. On the defensive, why

yes and on the run—to catch a Goe-belite and see what he looks like.

Judge Redwine has really, it would seem, gone into his hole and pulled it after him. The demand made by so many democrats that the old bulldog

be taken off the stump has clearly

had the desired effect.

George B. Cox, the great Ohio Standard and magnate, gives Goebel one of the strongest endorsements he has ever received. What think the Democrats of the man Cox can endorse? Goebel needs to be looked after closer now than ever before.

When Goebel was first nominated it was said he would not need the party machinery to win. Now they say that the gang has the machinery and he will win. The people are yet to be heard from, and it is two to one that the Goebelites don't win even with the machinery.

Just after the Louisville nomination

all the talk of the Goebel gang was of a united Democracy. What think they now of a united party? The idea makes the Brownites smile and the Republicans grin.

The inconsistency of the Louisville

Courier-Journal is almost as great as the ingratitude of some of Gov.

Brown's old pap suckers and Black-burn's lack of fidelity to a promise.

There are enough honest voters in Kentucky to put down Goebelism and all efforts to foster such a crime on the state. The Sun has no fears in this direction.

The Republican state canvass progresses well, thanks to the thoughtful people.

The Nelson Record, in spite of the fact that the Populists denounce Goe-belism, which the Record is supporting with marvelous recklessness, says: "It is especially gratifying to see that the Populists fully appreciate the character of the fight being made on Goebel and the nature of the issues to be fought out in this campaign. It is customary for the little whisper-snappers and tomtits in politics to attempt to deride

and belittle the Populists and their doctrines, but the fact nevertheless remains that as a whole no more patriotic, intelligent and disinterested set of men is to be found in the political arena today than these same derided

Populists. They are quick to condemn.

The fact that Tom Pettit, of Owensboro, has declared for Goebel is the cause of this tribute from the Record,

and the fact no doubt leads the paper

to think a little taffy might catch the whole push. The Record has long

if it ever knew that Pettit was long since discounted as a Populist and that he is not now the great leader of the faction it seems to think he is.

The Record's flattery is therefore amusing.

"West Virginia is building six railroads and there are thirty more proposed," says Gov. G. W. Atkinson in a communication to a Cincinnati paper.

West Virginia it is safe to say has no tailroad law on its statute books or a leading party endeavoring to put one there to confiscate and ruin its great traffic veins. West Virginia's governor is also not fool enough to threaten to ruin a great railroad system of the state nor are the people of the state thinking of assisting in such uncommensurate work, nor would

as an incendiary threat by a demagogue who would dare not do such a thing even if he could. Let the people think of these things and vote wisely and well. Kentucky is as great a state as West Virginia and too should be filled with railroads.

One of the Goebel papers think they have a point in throwing it into the lap of Mr. Brown, that many of his present supporters are the men who opposed him in his last race and as governor of Kentucky. If this statement was true it would not reflect as much upon either Mr. Brown or these designated supporters as the fact that his harsher vituperators at present are the men he took from obscurity and gave prominence and good fat offices

too when he was governor. However,

it may be said in justice to even these ingrates, the present position of these former Brownites is not that they love Mr. Brown any less than formerly, but that they are out

hunting more pap and see this hope waning through the certain defeat of Mr. Goebel.

The Louisville Courier-Journal has always been the secular (wicked) partner of Bennett Young. It seems that Mr. Haldeman's admiration for the late Rev. Stuart Robinson could be satisfactorily displayed only in patronage bestowed on all his progeny to the remotest generation and any scheme of Bennett Young found a ready advocate in the C. J. This complaisance entitles Bennett Young in all his numerous and questionable financial schemes, to Bennett Young's son's candidacy for city treasurer at Louisville and now, through Mayor Weaver to Bennett Young's little scheme to hire

out $6,000 worth of books for $24,000

a year to the city of Louisville. The ## Observations ....at Random.

The New York Dramatic Mirror of this week contains an excellent picture of Mr. Ralph Bingham, who has several times entertained Paducahans with his admirable story telling and music. Mr. Bingham, while familiar all over the country as an entertainer, is practically unknown to the stage, or rather was until last season. He essayed vaudeville and proved such a success that he has devoted to stick to it. Henceforth his friends will see him no more as a platform monologist. He has fallen a victim to vaudeville, and he will doubtless remain in the business as long as he is fully appreciated.

When family affairs get into the police court you can always count
on a lengthy as well as entertaining session. The various principals, accompanied by the multitudinous witnesses and their cooks and children, fairly flood the city hall until it looks like circus day on Broadway.
They crowd into the various offices monopolize the chairs and all try to get into different rooms for fear of an outbreak of hostilities. The sundry colors of their makeup give the old temple of justice a gay day appearance. It is all they can do to prevent their fidgety children getting mixed up and swapped off.

When court is called they are summoned before the bar of justice and made to remain outside the court room while the case is on trial.
They are called in one at a time.
The horrid lawyers get them mixed up in their statements and their male friends stand around in the doors and swear to break the most terrible vengeance in the category
on the lawyers when they catch them out. They all tell the story different, and then get mad at the attorneys for it. It reminds one of the negro story about the whale.

"I don't know whether Jonah swallowed de whale or de whale swallowed Jonah, but I do know dat dere wah
some pow'ful big swallowin' did 'emdun' tow dat Scriptur," he declared
on being questioned about the whale story. Needless to say, Judge Sanders always has to see a case of domestic affairs hauled into his court,
and he cannot be blamed.

A railroad conductor assisted a friend to play a laughable practical joke on two strange young ladies the other day. The young ladies occupied a seat on the train just behind the young man, and seemed to have nothing in particular to do except to comment on what they saw around them. The train was going most too fast for them to pay much attention to the glimmering landscape. But with passengers it was different.

Presently the conductor came around to the young man and said "Ticket,
please."

The young man instinctively handed him a mileage book.
"Where do you want to go?" asked
the conductor.

The young man for reply took a small blank book from his pocket
and wrote "Fulton."

"Deaf and dumb," the conductor observed to himself, but loud enough for the young ladies, who were already interested, to hear. He then tore out the mileage and handed it to the young man to sign. This finished, he passed on down the car.

"Too bad that he's so sadly afflicted," sympathetically remarked
one of the young ladies.

"Yes indeed it is. I wonder what he does? Seems to me he wouldn't find much pleasure in traveling," asserted the other.

"Not much, I should think. Do you reckon he's married? Wonder if his wife's as sour looking as he is?"
pursued the other.

"Doubtless, if she has to do all her talking in writing. I know I'd be."

"Looks like a drinking man, doesn't
he. He has such a dissipated face."

"Yes," with a smile, "but his wife can't fuss at him about it—provided of course he has a wife. That's one advantage."

"I wonder how he ever managed to propose? I imagine it would be quite unique and interesting to get a proposal from a man who can't talk or hear."

"Yes, but he can see!"
"Say, Grace, do deaf and dumb men
more?"

"I'm sure I don't know. I never had an opportunity to find out. I wish he'd go to sleep like that man
over there and let us see."

"Which one, that fat man emitting
a sound like a steamboat whistle?"
"Yes," with a giggle, "don't talk so loud, he might wake up!"
"No danger of that. Fat men are not so easily disturbed."

"Do you reckon our young man here lives in Fulton? That's where he's going. I saw him write it."

duch who wants to see the city keep space with the times should assist in the move to get up a street fair for this fall. It will do perhaps more than anything else to help the city and give it a good name among progressive towns.

A sweet woman, the picture of health,
speaking with enthusiasm, said, "I don't see why you do not send out women to talk to women about the merits of Pabst Malt Extract, The "Best" Tonic. There are so many women that are run down, with nerves shattered, with a lack of vitality, feeling a sort of restless indecision
which is an outgrowth of over-exertion. If you could only get a woman who knows as well as I do how "Best" Tonic will build one up, and who has enough earnestness to tell them about it, you would certainly have largely increased sales. There is Mrs. —, who was as thin as she could be, and her poor little baby, puny and undeveloped. I told her about "Best" Tonic. In three weeks you ought to see the difference. The improvement is something great; mother and baby
both feel it and show it."

An International Bird Question.
In addition to the destruction wrought by pugnacious sparrows at home, English swallows and martins suffer severely during their migrations
from bird-hunters in Italy and France.
Millions are thus slaughtered every year, and the Society for the Protection of Birds has been asked to protest to the governments of France and Italy on the ground that the killing of the English birds while crossing their territories is leading to a serious increase of insect pests in England. England has never been backward in protecting her citizens abroad, and perhaps her agents will be found to cover those who dress in clothes.

LOCAL LINES.

—Mr. John Dison has been employed to collect subscriptions for The Daily Sun, instead of Mr. O. T. Davis, who is now connected with the Leader.

—The residence of Mr. W. A. Vantrees on Tennessee street, was broken into yesterday while the family was away and $10, some street car checks and a pair of gold spectacles were stolen. The matter was reported to Chief Hoyer last night.

—Eleven members of the Gochel club met last night at the city hall. About $236 has been raised. The printing committee of the city Democratic committee meets this afternoon to award contract for printing and to vote the expense among the candidates.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will Foster are parents of a girl baby.

—A pleasant dance was given last evening at La Belle park. About thirty couples danced.

—The Y. M. C. A. debating club meets tonight and the subject for debate is the one that was to have been discussed last week—“Resolved That Environments Have More to Do With Success Than Ability.”

—Mr. Will Moss, of Mattell & Effinger's, was painfully hurt yesterday while carrying some coffee up the stairs, his left leg being wrenched.

—Mr. James Smith's fine stepper and Mr. Boyd Reed's “Chas. K” ran a race on the speedway last evening. Mr. Smith's horse winning.

—Dave Cole, colored, who has been serving a $10 fine in the lockup for striking Mark Lydon, was yesterday afternoon transferred to the city hospital on account of illness.

—The water company will in a few days have a force of men go to work on Bridge and other Mechanicsburg streets, and lay water mains.

—Howard Cash, aged 6 years, died yesterday afternoon at the Home of the Friendless. The funeral took place today.

—Mr. Armour Gardner's stable back of his residence, caught fire last night, but the blaze was extinguished before any damage of consequence resulted. The origin is unknown.

—The roofers on the street car company's new car shed on West Broadway are working at night on account of the heat during the day.

—Hon. Hal Corbett, of this city, is to speak in the interest of Governor Brown at Morganfield on the 4th of September.

—Inglewood Lodge No. 195, I. O. O. F., meets tonight at 8 o'clock in regular session in Odd Fellows hall, corner Fifth and Broadway, for work in the initiatory and other degrees. Visiting brethren invited to attend.

—A local contemporary says in one place: “There is such a demand for our paper that the papers run short every day. We will print a few hundred more than yesterday and hope everybody can be accommodated.” Yet in another item the same paper says: “Old papers for sale at this office.”

—Mrs. E. P. Weeks and daughter, Miss Salie, are improving from their recent illness.

—Mrs. J. W. Wadley has about recovered from her recent illness.

—Mr. W. H. Hudson, after an illness of over a month from fever, is improving.

—Mr. K. C. Rose has recovered from a six weeks' illness.

—The cooler weather predicted for last night didn't come. The night, to the contrary, was quite warm until a late hour, when there was a slight moderation. Today has been clear and calm and to an extent close.

—Broadway is being well recovered again, but whether it is with gravel or mud is not clear. A good rain will tell the story.

—The Sun is still offering the people the best advertising medium in the city—the largest circulation and the best paper. It is also giving the people the best printing to be secured in the city. These facts, demonstrable any time and in any way necessary to convince the doubting, should not escape the attention of the interested.

—The ladies of the Cumberland Presbyterian church gave an excursion to Metropolis on the Bettie Owen last night, and it was very enjoyable. The attendance was not large, but every one had a good time.

—The big hall at the county court house is receiving a fresh coat of wall-paper, which will greatly improve its appearance.

—Will Pryor, colored, was this morning fined $8 in Justice Eney's court on a charge of throwing rocks at William Mount.

—Marketmaster John Smith was off duty on account of illness this morning, but this afternoon was able to return to duty.

—Workmen are engaged in constructing a drainage under the N. C. and St. L. freight house, which will divert all the water that now accumulates under it into the hollow.

—Another very interesting session of the colored teachers institute was held today. The institute closes this evening.

—Ed Henson, of the county, had his wagon turned over on Broadway yesterday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock. His horse took fright at the street roller and Mrs. Henson was thrown out and painfully bruised.

—Arena today than these Populists. They are quick. The fact that Tom Paine, who has declared cause of this tribu

A good many upper Ohio river steam boatsmen abandoned the river until the regular steamboating season opens. Those who were fortunate enough to save some money, have gone to pleasure resorts and hid themselves completely from all things connected with river life.

The Dick Fowler was rather tight on her departure for Cairo this morning. The Gus Fowler, sunk last Tuesday in the Missouri river on her way to St. Louis with a big trip, was a total loss. Part of the cargo will be saved, but in a damaged condition.

The Gus Fowler was one of the best known boats that ever navigated the Ohio river. She was owned and run by the Evansville, Paducah and Cairo Packet company, and served faithfully for fourteen years as a daily packet between Paducah and Cairo without an accident of any consequence. She was sold to parties at Memphis about two years since, but it seems was never confined to any particular trade. Her latter days were spent wandering.

The City of Sheffield is overdue from St. Louis for Tennessee river. She is blocked off with excostrations.

It was very dull in river traffic today.

The Bob Dudley must have “choked a stump” somewhere in the Cumberland river and taken up summer quarters, on account of low water.

The little Cumberland river boat, Hustler, left here at noon today with every pound of freight she could handle. Capt. McMahon is doing well.

It will be at least ten days or two weeks before the Fred A. Banks comes off the ways, and it will require fully a month to complete her when she gets in the water. Captain Brunner is quite anxious to get his boat completed as the cotton trade opens in September.

The H. W. Butteroff arrived from Evansville 2 p. m. and departed on return trip at 3:30 with eight business in freight but handled a good many passengers on her down trip, and on departure.

The City of Paducah from Tennessee river will arrive tonight on her way to St. Louis.

Jolly Hard arrived on the steamer Tennessee last night from Johnsonville. His family is with him and waiting for the City of Paducah going to St. Louis. Mr. Hard is an old and well known Cumberland river steamboat clerk.

The sinking of the Gus Fowler near Aubert, Mo., adds another to the long list of wrecked steamers in the Missouri river. It is said that most of the boat's cargo will be saved in an undamaged condition. The steamer Gasconade and barges were receiving the stranded boat of her freight yesterday, and it will be brought to this city. She had 2144 sacks of wheat, a few head of stock, shipments of poultry and miscellaneous goods. The boat will be lost. She was built at Jeffersonville, Ind., in 1880, was 160 feet long, 29 feet beam and 5 1/2 feet depth of hold. She was valued at $6,000, and was not insured.

ILLINOIS COUPLE WED.
Mr. Frank Channess and Miss Alice Duncan, of Carterville, Ill., arrived at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and were married a short time afterwards by Rev. Wear, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

QUIET WEDDING.
Mr. Will Hills and Miss Lillian Drake married last night.

Mr. V. H. Hills, assistant train dispatcher at the N. C. & St. L., and Miss Lillian G. Drake, a sister-in-law of Conductor Sam Sugars, were quietly married last night at 8 o'clock at the home of Conductor Sugars, on North Fifth street near Madison. Rev. W. K. Penrod, of the First Baptist church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by only a few friends and relatives of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Hills will be at home to their friends at Conductor Sugars' for the present.

CANDIDATES, NOTICE.
All democratic candidates are requested to call on me before 12 o'clock Saturday night and manage to get their names placed on the ballots. Those failing to do so will be left off.

JAKE SEAMON, Chairman Printing Committee.

SHORT SESSION.
Judge Sanders had little business this morning.

There was a brief session of the police court against Bob Davis, colored, for mistreating his wife, was tied away with leavies to reinstate.

Mose Range is charged with having whipped a relative and the case was continued.

John Aaron, for a breach of the peace, was fined $5 and costs.

THE CITY HOSPITAL.

There are at Present Sixteen Patients in It.

“The Cohen” an Interesting Patient—Has Been Crazy for Months.

Steward McKinney, of the city hospital, has sixteen patients at present, and four of them are suffering from typhoid fever while two of these are dangerously ill. One of these is Sink Hock a resident of a shanty boat. He may die, as his condition is precarious.

One of the most interesting patients is the man picked up on the street here several days ago, who at first gave the name of Joe Cohen. He said he lived in Evansville, and that he had a wife there but when the police authorities were telegraphed there, they failed to elicit any information about such people.

Since then the man has had a hard trial, during which he found Steward McKinney, that his name is Frank Rittiker, and that his home is in Illinois somewhere. He has a wife and three children there, and states he left home last February on a river trip, and got lost. He cannot account for himself since February, and does not know where he has been nor what he has been doing. He seems to have been deranged, and apparently has not yet recovered. He is suffering from a complication of diseases, and is in a dangerous condition.

ROBBERS TRIAL.

Set For Tomorrow Morning Before Judge Sanders.

The robbery case against James Ellis and Henry Mims, charged with taking two dollars from Will Mosely, is set for tomorrow before Judge Sanders. Both men are in jail. They are strangers, and the Henry Mims under arrest is not the well known colored photographer, who lives on Waikiki street, but unfortunately has the same name.

SLASHED WITH A RAZOR.

Argie Singleton this morning secured a warrant against Mary Houser for malicious assault. She was arrested for engaging in a fight with the Houser woman, and had a deep gash cut over her right eye and extending down through her nose, splitting the latter pretty badly.

The Singleton woman states that she was standing at the gate of her home on Ninth street, talking to the other woman's sweetheart, when the woman came up and slashed her with the razor. If she had not lodged her head, her eye would have been cut in two. The Houser woman is supposed to have left the city.

CALLED TO LOUISVILLE.

Mrs. Mary Schneider was this morning called to Louisville by the serious illness of her second daughter, Miss Carrie, who is visiting there. The young lady's many friends here wish her a speedy recovery.

DEATH OF A CHILD.
Josephine Davis, aged one year and eight months, died last night at 1116 Tennessee street, after a three weeks' illness. Burial at Princeton, where the remains were taken today.

JUDGE PRATT COMING.
He Will Speak in Paducah September 2.

Judge Clifton J. Pratt, of Madisonville, will speak in Paducah on September 2, in the interest of the Republican nominees. He is the Republican candidate for attorney general, and a man with many friends in this part of the state, as well as elsewhere.

ELKS' EXCURSION.
It Will Be Held on the Pelatist Steamer Joe Fowler.

The Elks last night completed arrangements for their excursion on to Cairo Tuesday. The steamer Joe Fowler, which has just been overhauled on the ways, will take the crowd to Cairo, leaving the wharf about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. The price will be $1 for the round trip and those who attend are assured a pleasant time, both aboard the boat and at Cairo.

All good people are invited to accompany the Elks and their families. There will be music on the boat and those who desire will be afforded an opportunity to dance.

The regular committee on a range of which Dr. C. E. Whittles is chairman, will have charge of the excursion, and last night a committee composed of Capt. Wm. Kraus, Messrs. M. W. Johnson, F. J. Bergdoll, Clint Wilcox and Jeff J. Read was appointed to assist in working it up. It is safe to predict that the excursion will be one of the largest and most delightful ever given.

Our Brands are: Pride of the Purchase, A No. 1, Success, Snow Drift and Daisy.

Every pound of our flour is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded.

Why not buy flour from your own mill? What's the difference? Here it is:

OUR MILL.
Buys wheat here
Helps our own town
Supports our schools
Gives to the churches
Buys groceries here
And a few dry goods
Pays a snug tax here
Hires all help here

OUTSIDE MILLS.
